

OUR MISSION STATEMENT

The mission of FARPM is to provide a trade association for the residential property management industry in Florida. Our sole purpose is to help licensed real estate agents who manage single family dwellings and other smaller residential properties.

OBJECTIVES

- Educate the membership
- Promote a higher standard of business ethics among the FARPM membership
- Provide an intrastate network

STRATEGIES

1. A statewide magazine
2. A state association website
3. A state FARPM Convention
4. A statewide annual membership directory of FARPM members and affiliates
5. Addressing legislative issues both state and national in Tallahassee that affect residential property managers.
6. Exposure and legislative benefits through alliances with other trade organizations such as The Florida Association of REALTORS®, the Florida Apartment Association, IREM, and BOMA.
7. Quarterly meetings of FARPM leaders to discuss agenda items that would benefit our profession in Florida.

FARPM supports the highest standards of our trade/profession within Florida.

Membership Advantage

Name Brand Identity

Increase your public image by belonging to an active State Professional Organization.

Magazine - "The Florida Property Manager"

Printed quarterly, the FARPM magazine, "The Florida Property Manager," contains articles of interest to our industry and advertisements from our affiliates.

Membership Directory

FARPM publishes an annual membership directory, which includes members and affiliates.

Legislative

FARPM has aligned with FAR, FAA, and other real estate groups in the past to lobby for changes directly related to our industry. One major success of FARPM was influencing the changes in the security deposit laws.

Annual State Convention

The Annual Convention is held in an exciting and prestigious location in Florida during the third week of May. Our Annual Conventions feature notable State and National speakers. Members can register for the convention at discounted rates.

Other Member Benefits

Computerized technology and information for the single family residential property manager.

Networking and Sharing

FARPM members share and discuss information, referrals, and concerns. This is a highlight during the Annual State Conventions and other events.
